The Romance...

Think about those early romantic days when you first fell in love... how you met... how you played and had fun together... Using the following as a guide, reflect and write about your experience to your partner

What attracted me to you was... The qualities and attributes I saw in you that drew me to you were...

Some of my favorite memories from that time were These feelings fulfilled a deep longing inside of me for
As I remember you back then, what I'm experiencing right now is
